

Rights Round Table Newsletter 11

We looked at an example of the Pre-Health Check Questionnaire. You can ask your GP to send you a copy for you to fill in at home.

Then, we talked about some 'fair or unfair' questions from the North Yorkshire Learning Disability Partnership and KeyRing.

Judith's support staff always make her decisions for her.

Do you think this is fair or unfair? Why?

Syeda was not given easy read information about the different parties in the election. So it was hard for her to decide who to vote for.

Do you think this is fair or unfair? Why?

The North Yorkshire Learning Disability Partnership and KeyRing have made a Human Rights Activity Pack that you can find here:

www.nypartnerships.org.uk/humanrights

Our group members said...

“I think people should be supported to make decisions for themselves.”

“The different political parties should make easy read information, so I can decide who to vote for.”

“I called my Dr about the Pre-Health Check Questionnaire. They are going to give me a call back this week.”

Our next Zoom meeting is on Monday 8th February, 2.30pm – 3.30pm.

Get in touch if you would like to be part of the Rights Round Table.

0191 281 8737

sally.hoban@skillsforpeople.org.uk

www.skillsforpeople.org.uk

Skills for People Registered Charity No: 1069993